Thurston Winter Report

Our time in the U.S.A.

What a beautiful time we had at Carolyn's house. She was so gracious allowing Sally and I to stay at her place on and off for three months. We want to thank her for the wonderful hospitality. A big thanks goes out to Ken, Karen and Bob plus Jon in Sequim for opening their homes to us during this time of visiting friends and churches.

Waiting to take off again

We loved connecting with our friends and catching up on their lives. Living out of a suitcase was tiring at times. Many hours were spent in our car traveling from city to city, and time did not allow us to visit all our friends.

Sofia, Amy & Steve

We also spent time with our son Steve, his wife Amy, and their beautiful daughter Sofia in Philadelphia. We were with them for a week. It was a real joy. At our mission board meeting, we worked on new mission plans for the next five years.

Speaking to students

While in Pennsylvania, we visited the University of Valley Forge. It was wonderful getting to talk with students about committing their life to the fulfillment of the Great Commission. It brought back many warm memories of when I was a Campus Evangelist.

Jim and Sally with their luggage

Burdened down with eight pieces of heavy baggage, we left Bellingham at 5 AM on January 22nd and arrived in Santiago the next day at noon. It was a long tiring trip.

We are now trying to get over jet lag caused by a five hour time change.
